INNOVATIVE PROGRAMS

Academy for Advanced Studies (AAS)

In August 2013 AAS began serving students in grades 9-12 as a college and career academy. A board of directors, comprised primarily of business and industry representatives, provides support and oversight to ensure the instructional program is aligned with current and future workforce needs. AAS maintains strong partnerships with Southern Crescent Technical College, Clayton State University, and Gordon College to provide students and adults with local access to college courses.

Charter Schools

HCS currently operates three charter schools - Hickory Flat Charter Elementary, Hampton Elementary Charter School, and Academy for Advanced Studies.

Impact Academy

Impact Academy is the virtual school program of Henry County Schools. Students in grades 6-12 have the option of enrolling on a part-time or full-time basis in online courses that include core academic classes, Advanced Placement courses, and many electives. Impact Academy students also have the option of participating in athletics and extracurricular activities at their home high school.
